

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

individual in charge of such corporation, or, if a foreign corporation, the local agent or person locally in charge thereof, shall be deemed to represent such corporation for the purpose of enforcing this ordinance, and shall be held responsible and punishable for each violation thereof.

SEC. 6. That any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall, on conviction, be punished by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $25, or, in default of payment, by imprisonment in the parish jail for not less than 10 days nor more than 30 days, or both, in the discretion of the recorder having jurisdiction of the same.

Foodstuffs—Protection of. (Ord. 2564, July 13, 1915.)

SECTION 1. That it shall be unlawful for any person to sell or offer for sale or have in his possession or under his control for sale any candy, cakes, confections, dried figs, dates, or preserved, candied, or crystallized fruits of any kind, bread, cakes, pies and pastries of all kinds, meat, fruits, vegetables, and all foodstuffs of any kind, unless the same be then and there effectually wrapped, covered, or inclosed in a manner suitable to and approved by the board of health for the parish of Orleans and city of New Orleans, so as to protect it from dust, flies, or other insects and from all other contaminating influences.

SEC. 2. That the board of health for the parish of Orleans and the city of New Orleans is hereby invested with the authority and charged with the duty to enforce the provisions of this ordinance and to prosecute all persons charged with violating the same, and to that end its officers, members, agents, employees, inspectors, and appointees shall have the right to enter any premise or place, or any car, conveyance, or other vehicle in the city of New Orleans for the purpose of inspection for violations thereof.

SEC. 3. That for the purpose for enforcing the provisions of this ordinance the word "person" is hereby defined to mean an individual, an association of individuals, a copartnership, and a corporation. That when an association of individuals is charged with the violation of any provision of this ordinance, each individual of such association of individuals, or, if a foreign association of individuals, the local agent or person locally in charge thereof, shall be deemed to represent such association of individuals for the purpose of enforcing this ordinance, and shall be held responsible and punishable for each violation thereof; and when a firm is charged with such violation each member thereof, and if a foreign firm, the local agent or person locally in charge of said firm, shall be deemed to represent such firm for the purpose of enforcing this ordinance, and shall be held responsible and punishable for each violation thereof; and when a corporation shall be charged with such violation, the president, or, in his absence, the vice president, or, in the absence of both, the officer or individual in charge of such corporation, or, if a foreign corporation, the local agent, or person locally in charge thereof, shall be deemed to represent such corporation for the purpose of enforcing this ordinance, and shall be held responsible and punishable for each violation thereof.

SEC. 4. That any person violating any provision of this ordinance shall, on conviction, be punished by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $25, or, in default of such fine, by imprisonment in the parish prison for not more than 30 days, or both, at the discretion of the court having jurisdiction.